LODGE HEADS PRESENT

Charles B. Matthews, Chairman of Executive Committee, Is "Man of the Hour.

Dr. Frank E. Gibson, commander of Columbia Commandery, No. 2. Knights Templar, ended his series of social attairs for his term as commander, with an entertainment and ball in honor of the wives, daughters and sweethearts of the Sir Knights, last night at the Old Masonic Temple.

This was one time when the real man agement of the affair was taken off the bands of Commander Gibson, as the ever faithful officers under his command, wished to give him a taste of attending the last event for the "ladies" with no worries of the arrangements. Charles B. Matthews, chairman of the executive committee, assisted by the various other committees, provided an excellent enterlainment to open the evening's festivities Dr. Charles A. Stewart, chairman o the entertainment committee, made a short address of welcome and then an nounced the program, which began with a clever line of tricks by Milton W. Drennan, "the man of mystery." Richard Drennan, "the man of mystery." Richard K. Hart, barytone, followed with popular songs, accompanied by Benjamin E. Gordon. "Thou Wondrous Youth." of Frants Att, was sung by Mrs. Ida F.
